

I absolutely oppose any proposal to deregulate the current FCC rules which would allow corporate media mergers. The necessity of diverse points of view from all media outlets is the fundamental tennat of a real democracy.